MISSIONARY HERALD CLUBS

¶ We hope to make a substantial gain in them this year.

¶ Every one says the MISSIONARY HERALD is a superb magazine, full of interesting and valuable information.

¶ It is well illustrated with unusual pictures, largely taken by those who describe them.

¶ The world is changing so fast, and in its religious situations most of all, that one needs a monthly news-bringer to keep him informed.

¶ Turkey, India, China, Japan, Africa, the Latin Lands, the Island World—what a field it is to cover!

¶ We feel that the people of the Congregational churches need the MISSIONARY HERALD no less than it needs their subscriptions. So we appeal once more to pastors and church officers to choose an energetic, tactful, persistent person in their church to secure the Club.

¶ Ten subscribers or more at 50 cents each make a Church Club. We are ready to do whatever we can to help.

DISTRIBUTING BIBLES AT PORT SAID CAMP

Every family in the camp able to read has received either a Testament or a Bible to replace those lost in flight. (See Port Said Refugees, p. 12)
